Dr. Brumfield Will Talk About 'Rending of Veil'

"The Rending of the Veil" will be the sermon topic of Dr. J. C. Brumfield at the South Bay Baptist Church, 4565 Sharynne Lane, this Sunday in 11 a.m. rites. Junior church services and toddler and crib nursery care are available at the same time. Sunday school classes are at 9:45 a.m. with bus transportation available by calling the church. Dr. Brumfield will present another message in a series of pre-Easter talks in evening services at 7:30. Baptist training groups for all ages meet at 6:30 p.m. Women's Missionary Fellowship groups will meet at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday. Eileen Bowman Circle will meet with Mrs. Verland Maughn, 1918 Belmont Lane, Redondo; Ruth Covell Circle with Mrs. Harry Atkins, 1010 Emerald St., Redondo, and Millie Kreps Circle with Mrs. Robert Touchstone, 22513 Susana Ave. Bible study and prayer meeting will be Wednesday at 7:30 p.m., with a nursery available. Choir rehearsals for Easter music will be Thursday from 7 to 9 p.m. A work night has been scheduled Thursday evening in addition to the regular Saturday work day on the new Sunday school unit.

Quakers Slate Sunday Meeting In San Pedro

The Society of Friends (Quakers) will hold its next meeting this Sunday in the home of Dr. and Mrs. Leonard Thompson, 1151 Paseo del Mar, San Pedro, at 10 o'clock a.m. Children are invited to the early part of the meeting, with supervision of the adjacent playground provided afterward. The newly organized group has been meeting regularly in members' homes and is now looking for permanent Sunday morning housing. Anyone with a possible meeting place is asked to call one of the members.

Sermon Set on 'Magic of Ashar'

Dr. Earl D. Barnum, pastor of the Redondo Beach Church of Religious Science, 503 S. Catalina Ave., will discuss the "Magic of Ashar" this Sunday in 11 a.m. services. "Ashar is a Hebrew word which, freely translated, has come to mean 'tithe.'" Dr. Barnum will describe the ancient meanings and connotations of the word and will give reasons why the word is significant today.

Infants also will be christened Sunday. Inspiration Hour will be held in the church classroom at 10:30 Wednesday, with a combination of inspirational talks, healing meditations, and discussion period. A nursery is available. From 7:30 to 9:30 Thursday the first-year accredited college course in fundamentals of Religious Science will meet. The choir, directed by Mrs. Mildred Bennett, will practice at 7:30 p.m. Friday.

Dr. Shuder Will Present Physics, Philosophy Talk

"Physics and Philosophy" will be the topic of Dr. Harry A. Shuder's address at Sunday services of the Pacific Unitarian Church Society.

The talk, based on Newton's first, second and third laws of thermodynamics, will delve into the relationship of physical laws and non-physical or social laws.

Services begin at 11 a.m. at 1610 Acacia Ave. Four Torrance youths were among nine delegates of the Pacific Unitarian Church Society attending the Pacific Southwest Liberal Religious Youth Conference in Long Beach March 8 and 9.

Attending from the Torrance church were Joe Austin, 5352 Reese Rd.; Pam Perry, 146 Paseo del Orlacio; Cliff Potts, 3304 W. 182nd St., and Steve Watkins, 4839 Reynolds Dr.

Others attending were Paula Blue, Gardena; Don Boardman, Hawthorne; Susan Titus, Redondo Beach; Sharon Waite, Wilmington, and Ann Forrest, Los Angeles.

Taking part in the conference, which was designed to promote world-wide brotherhood, were foreign exchange students and American students who have visited behind the Iron Curtain.

Baptists Will Resume Early Rites Sunday

The Narbonne Ave. Baptist Church, 24730 Narbonne Ave., Lomita, will begin its 8:30 service again. This Sunday it will be a duplicate of the regular morning service at 11.

The reason for the change is the growth in attendance since enlarging the auditorium. One worship service will be conducted before Sunday school and the other afterward.

Thirty-six young people went on the winter retreat to the mountains. The group journeyed to Forest Home for the annual snow trip. The 16 to 18 inches of snow was enjoyed by everyone.

Pastor Robert A. Wells will speak at the 8:30 and 11 a.m. services on "The Keys of the Kingdom." "Who did Jesus give the keys of the Kingdom of Heaven to?" is a question the Bible has an answer for and this message is intended to answer that question, he said.

Church Ladies Slate Lunch

"Havoli La Hanau" will be the greeting to those attending the annual birthday luncheon of the Seaside Community Church Women's Guild at the Polynesian restaurant at 1 p.m. next Wednesday.

A "surprise program" is planned, according to the chairman, Mrs. Clyde Martin. Tickets are $1.75 and must be obtained before Monday from Mrs. David Tepas or Mrs. Frank Tuttle.

You will enjoy "The Twentieth Century" Sundays on KNXT, Channel 2

20th CENTURY GROWTH IN TORRANCE

Every year there is further development in Torrance with the coming of new businesses and the expansion of industries already here. To help provide the complete life insurance service the many new families and businesses here need, The Prudential has established the new Harbor District Agency. In the new quarters at 23912 Crenshaw Boulevard, Manager Delbert K. Schless and his staff will give you the friendly, efficient service you find in every Prudential office.

This continuing expansion in the Torrance area creates new opportunities for men of outstanding caliber to become Prudential Agents. A career with The Prudential offers independence with security, prestige, self-satisfaction and an income limited only by effort. For full information see any Prudential Manager.

Delbert K. Schless was born in Providence, Utah. At an early age he came to California with his family and attended schools in Santa Monica. In 1940 he joined The Prudential as an Agent in Los Angeles. The following year he entered the U.S. Army and spent five years in service including two years of active duty in the Asiatic Theatre. He was separated in 1946 with the rank of Captain and returned to The Prudential as a District Agent in Santa Monica. Within two years he was promoted to Staff Manager and in 1956 he was promoted to Manager in Salt Lake City. Now he has returned to California to manage the new Harbor District Agency in Torrance. He and his wife, Winifred, are the parents of a son and two daughters.

Father Percy Talks About Two Choices

Father Hugh R. Percy, rector of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, 1432 Engracia Ave., last Sunday, chose as his text, Genesis 1:31, "And God saw everything that He had made, and, behold, it was very good."

In his talk, Father Percy contrasted two views of life—looking for the good side of life and looking for the bad. Man has a choice between these two views and should choose to see "the apple, not the worm," he said. The local pastor said that man should not close his eyes to evil and pain, but not be overwhelmed by it.

One path leads to happiness and the other to despondency and gloom, Father Percy said.
